

Questioning Flow

1. Read the passage.

1.1. Ask basic questions to summarize what is read.

1.2. Formulate questions beginning with “Who? What? When? Where? How much?”

2. Analyze the passage.

2.1. Seek relationships such as cause and effect.

2.2. Formulate questions beginning with “How? Why?”

3. Evaluate what you have read.

3.1. Make a judgment about the material.

3.2. Formulate questions which begin with “Which one?; Should...?”

4. Think about the material; connect with your personal life.

4.1. Suggest possible alternative outcomes.

4.2. Formulate questions beginning with “What if...?”

4.3. What relevance does this information have to me or to experiences that I have had?